Art lesson plan

Creating Mardi Gras NeoPopRealist Mask using NeoPopRealist Ink Pen /Pattern Drawing concept, inspired by Nadia Russ

نر برنامه درسي، مركب قلم

Grade: 6-8, 9-12, adapt. 3-5
Developed by NeoPopRealism Press - www.neopoprealism.org [http://www.neopoprealism.org/]

Visual arts, Crafts & Music,

Creating of NeoPopRealist Mardi Gras Mask is not only the fun way of self expression through art, exercising your sense of harmony and imagination, but also a studying of the NeoPopRealist art and its philosophy for happier life. This art lesson plan breaks down complications of the professional artist's creative process to the level, when NeoPopRealist drawing concept can be understood by the beginners.

OBJECTIVES:
Students will
1. Learn (or be reminded) about NeoPopRealism ink pen / pattern drawing and work of artist Nadia Russ, who created this style in 1989 (see Resources).
2. Define the terms “NeoPopRealism" and differentiate NeoPopRealism ink pen pattern drawing and the realism drawing approach.
3. Experiment with drawing of the NeoPopRealism abstract - the repetitive patterns
4 Create/draw a Mardi Gras NeoPopRealist Mask for carnival, inspired by Nadia Russ and NeoPopRealism, using ink pen black.

Material:
- 1 piece 5.5"x8.5" of white thick cardboard for creating a Mardi Gras NeoPopRealist Mask
- white paper 8.5" x 11" for experimenting with the repetitive patterns drawing
- 2 ribbons, each 12 inch long
- ink pen black 0.7 mm thin
- scissors
- computer

Day 1: Display in classroom posters with Nadia Russ' NeoPopRealism ink pen pattern drawings (see Resources below) or show her NeoPopRealist drawings online. Introduce (or remind) the NeoPopRealism ink pen pattern drawing concept and how Nadia Russ created it in 1989, see http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com/ [http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com/] . Ask students to compare NeoPopRealism ink pattern drawings by Nadia Russ and drawings by realists-artists such as Rembrandt and Leonardo da Vinci.

Discuss with students Mardi Gras mask, its history, how it decorates and beautifies the carnivals and costumes.

About Mardi Gras. "Mardi Gras", "Mardi Gras season", and "Carniva[illegible]n", refer to events of the Carnival celebrations, beginning on or after Epiphany and [illegible]ating on the day before Ash Wednesday. Mardi Gras arrived in North America as [illegible]ch Catholic tradition with the Le Moyne brothers, Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville an[illegible]Baptiste Le Moyne de Bienville, in the late 17th century, when King Louis XIV sent [illegible]r to defend France's claim on the territory of Louisiane, which included what are no[illegible]U.S. states of Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

The expedition, led by Iberville, entered the mouth of the Mississippi River on the evening of March 2, 1699, Lundi Gras. They did not yet know it was the river explored and claimed for France by René-Robert Cavelier, Sieur de La Salle in 1683. The party proceeded upstream to a place on the west bank about 60 miles downriver from where New Orleans is today, and made camp. This was on March 3, 1699, Mardi Gras, so in honor of this holiday, Iberville named the spot Point du Mardi Gras (French: "Mardi Gras Point") and called the nearby tributary Bayou Mardi Gras. Bienville went on to found the settlement of Mobile, Alabama in 1702 as the first capital of French Louisiana. In 1703 French settlers in Mobile established the first organized Mardi Gras celebration tradition in what was to become the United States.

While Mardi Gras in the United States is not observed nationally across the country, a number of cities and regions in the U.S. have notable Carnival celebrations. The earliest Carnival celebrations occurred in Mobile, Biloxi, New Orleans, and Pensacola, which have each developed separate traditions. In addition, modern activities generally vary from city to city across the U.S..

Costumes and masks are frequently worn on Mardi Gras Day. Laws against concealing one's identity with a mask are suspended for the day. Banks are closed, and some businesses and other places with security concerns (such as convenience stores) post signs asking people to remove their masks before entering. Mardi Gras is composed of various events such as balls for social clubs in the New Orleans Area, but the main event is simply a street festival, open to the public. Some individual krewes do, however, produce an official poster of their organization each year.

Discuss with students the particular mask that you are going to create using a thick white cardboard size 5.5"x8.5". Measure the distance between your eyes and draw the circles that you will cut out later . Then, draw the contour of a mask. Demonstrate the creating of Mardi Gras NeoPopRealist Mask step-by-step. Divide a shape of a mask into section;. then fill some sections with different repetitive patterns (see illustration below).

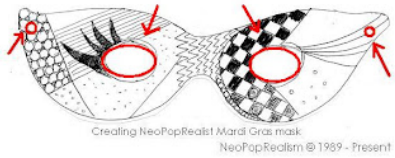
When your drawing process is finished, cut out the mask, make holes at the eyes' areas and small holes for ribbons at the both sides (see image below).



[http://1.bp.blogspot.com/-3bggahWc7Ew/UNBb2695HHI/AAAAAAAABxs/eoN_4FBfIR0/s1600/creating+neoporealism+mardi+gras+mask+ink+pen+pattern+drawing.JPG]

Then, insert into the two small holes on the left and on the right the ribbons, make the knots. Wear the mask.

Offer each student a sheet of white drawing paper 8.5" x 11", divided into squares/section. Turn on music with syncopation (not loud, preferably jazz). Offer students create in each square/section different repetitive pattern that they would use in their Mardi Gras NeoPopRealist mask. When students draw, they enter meditative state of mind. While creating the patterns, students focus on each element of the pattern creation, they draw slowly, not in a hurry. Ink pen should be thin - 0.7mm, not a thick marker.

Day 2:

Remind students the NeoPopRealism ink pen/ pattern drawing concept: A line creates sections, then these sections filled with different repetitive patterns, some sections can be left blank. Eraser never used. Discuss with students the contrast and flatness in the NeoPopRealism abstract ink pen pattern drawings. Explain why NeoPopRealism drawing needs no eraser: if a 'mistake' made, it visually disappears because the following patterns make this 'mistake' invisible and the whole composition balanced.

Each student create step-by-step one NeoPopRealist Mardi Gras mask on thick white cardboard. They measure distance between their eyes and draw circles for the eyes. Then, they draw a contour of the mask's shape, then divide the mask's shapes into sections as shown on images above. Then, students fill the sections with different repetitive patterns: circles, whirles, lines, squares, zigzags..., some sections they leave blank.

When the drawing process is finished, students cut out the circles in the eyes' areas and the small circles for the ribbons. Then, when the masks are ready they can wear them.

Students compare and discuss their masks, discuss the concept of NeoPopRealism ink pen/ pattern drawing, the patterns they used in their drawing. Students define term "NeoPopRealism". Students discuss the Marti Gras carnival.

You pick the best masks and let students demonstrate them in front of the class. (How to create more complicated NeoPopRealism Marti Gras Mask see below).

Lesson Plan - Background and Historical Information:

Nadia RUSS is a Ukrainian-born Russian painter/ graphic artist living in the USA, who created a style of visual arts NeoPopRealism. She is famous for innovative NeoPopRealism art and ink pen pattern drawing, including abstract, the meditative style that she created in 1989. Instead of careful copying reality - wild life or human figure, Nadia RUSS creates her artwork using imagination. As Nadia RUSS experimented and developed her distinctive techniques, her drawings became more symbolic. For her drawings she uses white paper and black ink pen. However, sometimes, she uses blue ink on white paper and gold/silver ink on black paper. http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com/ [http://neopoprealismblackwhiteink.blogspot.com/] .

How did Nadia RUSS develop her unique and original style NeoPopRealism? RUSS had studied classical drawing and composition since she was a child, but as she studied she found herself drawn to produce less realistic, more imaginative artwork. In 1989, she created NeoPopRealism art style and ink pattern drawing concept: line creates sections; then, these section filled with different repetitive patterns, some section should be left blank. If artwork made on canvas using color paints and a brush, then, it would be a combination of sections filled with hot and cold color paint, partly with patterns. In 1990, RUSS exhibited her first ink/ pattern drawings in a group exhibition in Moscow's famous Manege. Later, she was exhibiting her artwork in art galleries. In 1996, she moved to the Freeport, Bahamas, where her artwork gained special brightness. In 2000, she came to the USA where she lives till present. Nadia Russ create a term "NeoPopRealism" January 4, 2003. Same year, she manifested her new style of visual arts NeoPopRealism internationally. In 2004, she created NeoPopRealism 10 canons for happier life. In 2006-2007, several US and European museums collected Nadia Russ' paintings and drawings and now, these artworks are in the permanent

Follow-up activities:
View Nadia Russ artwork online and discuss NeoPopRealism ink pen pattern drawing style. Name several artists who invented new styles of visual arts and were their top representatives: Monet - Impressionism, Dali - Surrealism, Picasso - Cubism, Andy Warhol and Jasper Johns - Pop Art, Jeff Koons - Neo-Pop, Nadia Russ - NeoPopRealism.
Make sure students do not confuse NeoPopRealism, created by Nadia Russ, and Neo-Pop, created by Jeff Koons.

10. Create your life as a great adventurous story.

About what the NeoPopRealism philosophy for happier life stands for.
To bring the peace to the earth, it is time to unite all the peace-loving people, to stop the use and production of the heavy military equipment and weapons of mass destruction, such as war ships, war planes, artillery, nuclear bombs, etc., in every part of the world, without any exception, once and forever.
It has to be an international law, according to which any person of a country, in any government, responsible for use (or attempt to use) the heavy military equipment in any part of the world to kill people, would be imprisoned for the rest of life without possibility of amnesty, as the mass murderer. All sales of the heavy military equipment worldwide should be stopped, as well as production of new military heavy equipment, as part of this future law.

To keep this planet eco-friendly and beautiful, and people happy, we have to say 'good bye' to some irresponsible peoples' bloody toys. ~Nadia Russ (08.08.2014)
